TIA DEN HARTOG-MUHARAMIAH

PROJECT MANAGER,
UNIVERSITY OF TWENTE

Tia den Hartog is a project manager at the University of Twente - Faculty ITC in the Netherlands. Tia obtained her Bachelor Degree in Urban and Regional Planning and MSc Degrees from Wageningen University (Urban Environmental Management) and Van Hall Larenstein (Management of Development in Rural Communication). Tia has been working at the Faculty ITC since 2014, as a project manager of international projects with Indonesia, Eastern African countries, and European countries. At the moment, Tia is also active as project officer in supporting scientists in acquiring national and international projects. She is very keen in realising international collaboration projects and building bridges between knowledge institution, private and public sectors.
