

Takashi Sugiyama

Postdoctoral Research Fellow at
The University of Tokyo

“Action Research on Community Disaster Prevention Utilizing Warning Information for Nankai Trough Earthquakes”

Warning information is issued to promote tsunami evacuation after the Nankai Trough earthquake. Action research has been conducted to study how to utilize the warning information for community disaster prevention. In this presentation, I will report the results of that action research.