Polycrisis and Systemic Risk: Assessment, Governance, and Communication

(Liu & Renn; May 2025)

A recent publication from the collaboration of our IDRiM members explores the growing convergence of polycrisis and systemic risk. The paper reviews key literature, highlights overlaps and differences, and proposes a unified framework for assessing, governing, and communicating complex, interconnected risks across sectors. This contribution advances integrated disaster risk research and practice. Congratulations!
